

Langston's Lot

VII. Daybreak in Alabama

Langston Hughes*

Doug McConnell

Brightly ♩ = 108-112

Alto Saxophone

Tenor

f (Spoken:)

".....When I get to be a composer,
I'm gonna write me some music about

Day break in Al - a bam - a

Brightly ♩ = 108-112

Piano

mf (cheerfully)

mp

mp (lightly)

* Copyright 1994 BY THE ESTATE OF LANGSTON HUGHES. Used by permission.

7 mp

8 mp (gently) 3

And I'm gon-na put the pur-ti-est songs in it

7 mp

Λ (simile...)

10 mp 3

8 Ris-ing out of the ground like a

10

13 mf p (lightly)

8 mf swamp mist And fall-ing out of hea-

13 mf (legato, gently) 3

Λ (simile...)

16

8

ven... like a soft dew...

16

19

f (joyfully)

f (joyfully)

8

I'm gon - na put some tall trees

19

f (joyfully)

22

p

8

in it And the scent of pine need - les... And the 22

mp

25

8

mp

3

smell, _____ the smell _____ of red clay _____

25

mp (gently)

28

8

mf

3

f

af - ter rain _____ And 28

f